Fenn,
I probably pay for the things you wrote about, but I guess it was worth it. I guess it depends on what the price is. I've had plenty of good times with you we both know that, and we both know there will be plenty more.

Good luck in the future, man.

Dave "68"

of life and I sincerely hope you receive it.
Always

Junior Prom May 15, 1965 "Gone With the Wind" Music by the "Rogues"

Prom preparations started early. A group of lively students do some planning at Rhea's house.

The girls seem a little wrapped up in their decorations.

Chaperones at the prom were Maj. and Mrs. Edmund A. Rutkowski, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bovee, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey J. Rowland.

Never a dull moment!

Students swirl around the gazebo to the music of the "Rogues" from Gaylord.

The couples sit in front of the rose covered lattices for short chats with their dates.

1965 Senior President Randy Thompson and his date Linda Knibbs and the Junior President Joe Wakeley and his date Sharon Long lead the Grand March.

Under a glittering sky the Grand March reached its climax.

Southern belles and their gentlemen circle the gazebo.

You can't back out now, Mike!

The Seniors' float entry.

Senior Magazine Sale

The top magazine salesmen were Nancy Fenton, Joe Renaud, Kyle Slusser and Dennis Rochette (not pictured).

Seniors also receiving prizes were Joe Renaud, Doug Berry, Mike Gardiner, Joe Wakeley, Kyle Slusser, Carol Desso, Mike Hatfield and John Sorenson.

The seniors leave the library to attend their afternoon classes.

Darlene Portwood, Linda Klempp, Mike Gardiner, Sharon Long, Jeanette Skolasky and Chris Carlson admire their prizes.

Yield not to temptation!

You did it again, Lottiel

Our GIRL projectionists, Linda and Barb.

Seniors working under the Co-operative Program are: Lottie Jurkovich, Betty Jean McLeod, Janice Stewart, Nancy Fenton and Anne Marie Church. Mr. Gierke is the Advisor.

"Come on, Shortie, quit wiggling!"

They won't bite you!

Chris, pour the acid S-I-O-W-L-Y.

Honest, it's only pop.

In the midst of the completion of the 1966 Viking, we, the school's annual staff, wish to take the time to thank all of the merchants, and the faculty and students of Grayling High School, and all those people who have aided us in any way to make this annual not a plan but a reality.

Fenn,
We've had some fun times in the past only my going to Florida meant this year was practically shot - that can't happen a year without a Fenn to talk with goof around with and cheer me up. I sure wish you had come down to Florida. Let's start where we left off. Nothing says we can't have a blast this summer (when we're not working that is). I could write about some great evenings only they're so far back I wrote them in your last yearbook no doubt. It's not fair. I miss all the things we use to do even if most of them were a little ridiculous. Fenn I've always enjoyed being with ya and doing things and just talking with ya so don't change. Don't worry about anything, it's not good for ya.
Good Luck

Hi Bob, (alias, Steve)

Since I'm the first in your book let try to do it good. It's fine guy never has to be built up to feel good so I won't tell you ~~you're~~ you're great. It's just what you got luck and happiness. Be good

Here,

I would say, you're a really nice guy, but we all know better, don't we? you'll probably do
all right in the future in spite of your "problems".
I know you will because you've got what it takes!
(Hmmm?) Well, good luck in the future - especially history class.

Sandy

From

You're a Great
guy and the best in the class. I'm not one for writing
long speeches but you're a nice guy and I like you alot. It's been a great year.

John,
I guess I'll have to put along
with everything else
you know you've got all your on this page and all boys on the other. Nice going!! You know, you have really changed since I
first knew you.
your attitude,
personality and
everything has changed
throughout the last year.

Always try to
